

Declaration of criminal record and CRB application

This form should be completed by all new volunteers/employees (see SPCG18a) whose role requires a CRB Disclosure. It should be sent to British Rowing's Child Protection Officer in confidence. From 1 January 2008 CRB application forms will be issued by British Rowing on receipt of this form.

Because of the sensitive nature of the duties you will be expected to undertake, you are required to complete a CRB Disclosure and to disclose details of any criminal record. Only relevant convictions and other information will be taken into account so disclosure need not necessarily be a bar to working in this role. You should be assured that British Rowing will treat any information you give here in confidence, that it will be stored and disposed of securely and that it will not be used unfairly against you.
