

Title of Post: Head of Performance Rowing / Performance Development Coach

Salary Level: £25,001 –£28,893 per annum

Post Status: Full time, 2 year fixed term appointment

Office base: Centre for Sport and Exercise, University of Edinburgh, 46 Pleasance, Edinburgh, EH8 9TJ

Vacancy Ref:

Scottish Rowing and the University of Edinburgh are delighted to announce an exciting joint initiative to appoint a High Performance Coach with a complimentary dual remit.

The University of Edinburgh's Head of Performance Rowing will drive, develop and deliver a Performance Rowing programme within the University, with primary responsibility for leading technical sessions, squad selection and support services to assure optimal rowing performance in one of the UK's most highly respected, successful and impressive sporting universities.

The Scottish Rowing Performance Development Coach will support the performance activities as agreed by the High Performance Group to deliver against the targets as set out in the Scottish Rowing Strategic Plan.

You will be a dynamic performance coach with relevant experience in high performance coaching, ideally qualified to UKCC L2 Rowing. You will be expected to work under minimal supervision, plan / prioritise own work-load and play a leading role in a performance sport environment, as well as working at National level with Scottish Rowing.

The post is offered on a full-time basis for a fixed two year term.

Interested coaches can download the full job specification and apply online via the University's recruitment website ~ www.jobs.ed.ac.uk

Further information and queries can be directed to Lee Boucher, National High Performance Co-Ordinator Scottish Rowing: 07818 077612; lee.boucher@scottish-rowing.org.uk

The closing date for completed applications is: 10 September 2010