This document outlines the process that Scottish Rowing will follow to select a team to represent Scotland at the 2026 Junior Inter-Regional Regatta.

Background

The British Rowing Junior Inter-Regional Regatta (JIRR) is an annual competition for J14, J15 and J16 athletes contested by teams representing the various British Rowing regions.

In 2024, following a review of the event format by the JIRR Organising Committee, Scotland were represented for the first time. At the 2025 event, the Scotland JIRR Team finished second overall in the final standings, with the Scottish girls winning the Margaret Marshall Cup for the Women's event, and the boys finishing in fourth place. Scotland were also winners of the Barbara Wilson Cup for single sculling events. A testament to the 74 junior athletes spanning nine clubs that made up the 2025 Scotland JIRR Team.

Selection Principles

Scottish Rowing is aiming to select a full team using the following principles:

1. Competing at the JIRR should be a positive experience for everyone involved.
2. As many rowers as possible, from as many clubs as possible, should have the opportunity to represent Scotland therefore a) doubling up will only be considered where there is no suitable alternative; and b) rowers (excluding coxes) should normally compete in their own age group.
3. Crews identified through the selection event should be able to demonstrate a minimum standard to ensure that they can be competitive at the JIRR. This will be at the discretion of the Selection Panel.
4. The JIRR should provide an opportunity for rowers, coaches and clubs to work together using a 'Team Scotland' ethos.

Eligibility

To be eligible to represent Scotland at the 2026 British Rowing Junior Inter-Regional Regatta all athletes should:

1. Be a current member of Scottish Rowing (including valid racing licence).
2. Be a member and currently representing an affiliated Scottish Rowing member club.
3. Meet the age eligibility as per the British / Scottish Rowing rules of racing. *

 Please note that coxes are permitted to be any junior age category for the JIRR (i.e. up to J18).*
